From old to new in 4 easy steps - and help with fees for real estate agents What is help to sell? Help to sell is a great way to make moving home easier. It allows you to purchase a brand new Redrow home while we take care of selling your current property for you; even if you help with contributions to your real estate agent's fees. With the help of Sales Help, we will arrange the valuations, appoint a real estate agent to conduct the marketing activity of your home and take the documents out of your hands. Who's it for? For all homeowners looking for a seamless way to sell their home. Unlike Part Bors, Help to Sell covers every home, whether it's an apartment, penthouse or former home, regardless of the value of your new house. So whether you want to move up, slow down or even step aside, selling aid may be the best you can do. How does it work? Sales Help helps you move into your brand new Redrow home in four simple steps: Step 1 - Choose your new Redrow home Step 2 - We'll agree to an evaluation and marketing plan for your existing property step 3 - We'll work with the estate agent to achieve a quick sale and contribute to your Fees Step 4 - Book and move to your new Redrow home What should I do next? For an easier way to navigate, talk to a Redrow sales consultant today about how Sales Help can help you navigate. The contribution to the real estate agent's fees varies depending on the property purchased. Please contact our sales consultants for full details. Please note that if you have sold your property through sales assistance, you decide for some reason that you no longer wish to proceed with the purchase of the Redrow home, then you become responsible for the fees and expenses of the estate agent. If the customer completes the related sale before completing their Redrow home, they must pay the estate agent in full, and the amount for Redrow will be refunded upon legal completion. Yes, but a stage has to be built.
